Chinese Proverb of the month

Be not afraid of growing slowly, be afraid only of standing still

Chinese Culture

The start date for the Beijing Olympic Games is no accident.

At 8:08:08 p.m. on August 8, 2008, the world watched as China opens the 29th Olympiad.

Eight has long been a lucky number in Chinese culture because its pronunciation in many Chinese dialects is similar to the word which means "wealth" and "prosperity."

Asian Business News

Nearly 500 business leaders of China and West African countries met in Beijing to seek ways to further their economic cooperation. Peoples Daily Online

This meeting is a follow-up action to a successful China-Africa cooperation summit in 2006, the forum focused on investments in infrastructure, exploitation of natural resources, agriculture, banking and other services.

China's top economic planner announced the country will raise the prices of gasoline, diesel oil, aviation kerosene and electricity, revealing an unprecedented broad plan to raise energy prices.

High Performance Supply Chain

A high performance supply chain is the goal of all companies that import from overseas. Some classic symptoms of an under-performing supply chain are: Increasing Costs - Increasing Inventories - Poor Customer Service - Poor order Fill rates - Increased expedited freight. If your company is suffering in several of these areas, its probably time for a root analysis of your supply chain.
